

Trip of a Lifetime (Part 2)

By Barbara Lutz, BCMG Class 40

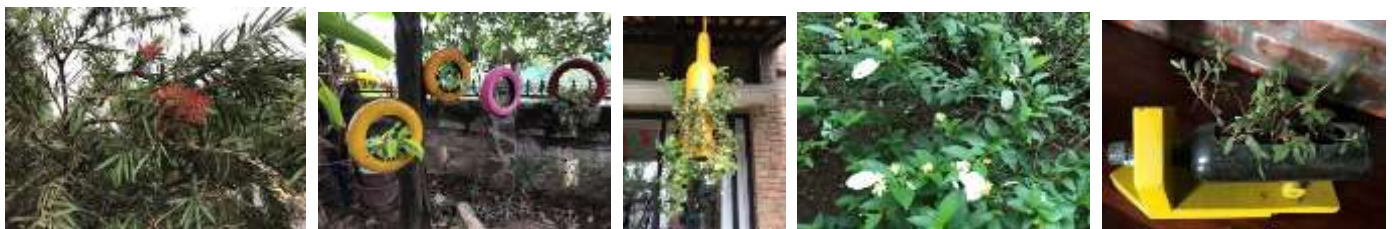

After our wonderful trip to Thailand we flew to Da Nang, Viet Nam where we rode the cable cars and played in the arcade at Sun World Ba Na Hills and visited My Son Sanctuary, a complex of Hindu temples built between the 4th and 14th century AD.

We were busy in Hôi Ai, Viet Nam I played the dan bau with a band, made a silk lantern, visited a community organic garden (where we prepared the plot, added seaweed as fertilizer, planted and watered the plot), rode a scooter, and went on the river in both a lantern boat and a basket boat.

I loved the plants at our house in Hôi Ai.

We flew back to Hong Kong and took the ferry to Macau where we enjoyed our stay at the Venetian Resort and Casino.

Back in Hong Kong we went on the MTR to the downtown street market. We also went to Victoria Peak (highest point on Hong Kong Island) and walked down to the zoo and botanical garden. The haze you see in the pictures is pollution.

Flowers in the Hong Kong Botanical Garden.
