TEXASFOLKLIFEFESTIVAL.ORG

Bexar County Master Gardeners are once again participating in the Texas Folklife Festival which include more than 40 cultural organizations from across the state to who share their traditions through 6 stages of music and dance, 100 food items and hands-on experiences. There are also artisans who maintain the skills Texas pioneers used to build the Lone Star State. You can sit and work with basket weavers, leather workers, wood carvers, potters and dozens more.

BCMG will have a gardening information table, a Texas Superstar Plant display (not sale) and a children's pot-a-plant activity located in a nice shady spot. Check out VMS to volunteer. BCMG Volunteers will receive a wrist band for free admission to all 3 days of the Folklife Festival.
